

Day 1: Wednesday 14th September, 2016

9:30 - 10:00	Registration and coffee
10:00 - 11:00	Keynote 1	Chair: Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill (University of Birmingham)	Professor Anoop Nayak, Newcastle University	Bodies Out of Place: Young People, Race, and Urban Mobility
11:00 - 12:30	Session 1: Mobility (i)	Chair: Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill (University of Birmingham)	Dr. John Horton, University of Northampton	Children and young people's everyday pedestrian practices in new build urban spaces in England: new mobilities, new encounters?
			Dr. Miriam Ricci, University of the West of England	Young people, mobility and processes of social inclusion / exclusion in an English urban periphery
			Zoi Karampini, National Technical University of Athens	Interdependent mobilities of children in the social mosaic of the neighbourhood: when the realm of the neighbourhood meets the sphere of the school
			Sarah Brooks-Wilson, University of York	Beyond the institutional boundary: Towards a more permeable, non-car based conceptualisation of local youth justice practice and journey making
	Session 1: Planning and design (i)	Chair: Dr. Cristiana Zara (University of Birmingham)	Bonnie Kwok, Oxford Brookes University	Inclusive Town Planning - The Next Generation
			Grant Menzies, The City of Play Ltd	PlayFULL and Playful Cities: The infrastructure of play in the Netherlands
			Jenny Wood, Heriot Watt University	Participation as process: children's rights in the Scottish town planning system
			Selba Arin, Bursa Orhangazi University	Children as design partners in shaping urban public space
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 14:45	Session 2: Mobility (ii)	Chair: Dr. John Horton (The University of Northampton)	Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill and Dr. Cristiana Zara, University of Birmingham	From the forest to the promenade (and back again): young people's mobilities at a site of urban change
			Catherine Walker, University College London	Children's sensory stories of journeys to school in Hyderabad, India
			Sonja Marzi, University of East Anglia	The influence of neighbourhoods on young Cartagena's mobility and future selves
			Professor Gina Porter, Durham University	New connectivities in urban Africa: exploring the impact of mobile phones on young people's everyday mobility
	Session 2: Planning and design (ii)	Chair: Dr. Ben Coles (University of Leicester)	Dr. Andreza Aruska de Souza Santos, University of Oxford	New Urban Agenda challenges: reflections on cultural heritage projects for young people in Ouro Preto, Brazil
			TBC
			Angeliki Bitou, VNS of OAED, Ioannina Greece	Being a toddler in a Day Care Centre: is there enough time for design and participate in activities?
			Mina Rezaei, University of Tehran	Teenagers in Public Spaces, Constraints and Opportunities in Iran
14:45 - 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 - 16:00	Session 3: Water and Energy	Chair: Dr. John Horton (The University of Northampton)	Professor Peter Kraftl, University of Birmingham; Dr Sophie Hadfield-Hill, University of Birmingham; Dr John Horton, The University of Northampton; Dr Ben Coles, University of Leicester	(Re)Connecting the Nexus: Young Brazilians and food/water/energy
			Dr. Cristiana Zara and Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill, University of Birmingham	(Re)thinking urban flows: the role of water in constructing child-friendly urban environments
			Katherine Mycock, Keele University	Forest School: The becoming of greener citizens?
	Session 3: Planning and design (iii)	Chair: Professor Pia Christensen (University of Leeds)	Rebecca Craig, London Borough of Hounslow	Beat the Street': Using RFID and NFC technology to incentivise walking and cycling in children
			Ainara Sagarna Armburu, UPV/EHU	From the home to the city: child friendly transitions
			Dr. Helen Woolley, University of Sheffield	Children's outdoor environments in Chinese cities: what of the future?
	16:00 - 17:00	Session 4: Review day 1, implications for Habitat III	Chair: Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill, Professor Peter Kraftl (University of Birmingham)
19:30	Optional conference dinner

Day 2: Thursday 15th September, 2016

9:00 - 9:30	Coffee
9:30 - 10:30	Keynote	Chair: Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill (University of Birmingham)	Douglas Ragan, Chief Youth and Livelihood Unit, UN-Habitat	Young People and the New Urban Agenda: Urban Youth-led Civil Society as the most effective and efficient way to support the New Urban Agenda
10:30 - 12:00	Session 5: Water	Chair: Professor Peter Kraftl	Dr. Arminda Eugenia Marques Campos, UNESP	The basin watershed concept in Brazilian students
			Eduardo Mario Mendiondo, CEMADEN/MCTIC-Brazil	Decentralised flood risk management approach through web-GIS systems for participatory water resilience with the Habitat Agenda
			Dr. Georgina Wood, University of Birmingham	Young water citizens: Investigating barriers to sustainable water consumption for young people
	Session 5: The nexus	Chair: Dr. Ben Coles (University of Leicester)	Dr. Helen Woolley, University of Sheffield	Children's play in disaster contexts: learning from post-disaster Japan
			Dr Sudeshna Chatterjee, ACE; and Tannistha Datta, UNICEF	Saving cities for Children: Promoting safe and resilient communities through a convergent approach for protecting and empowering slum-dwelling children in India
			Dr. Adefemi Adekunle, Newman University	Power, positionality and practice: for an integrated research strategy
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch
13:00 - 14:15	Session 6: Review - implications for Habitat III	Chair: Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill, Professor Peter Kraftl (University of Birmingham)
14:15 - 15:00	Session 7: Methodologies (6 minute soap box)	Chair: Dr. John Horton (The University of Northampton)	Cristiana Zara, University of Birmingham	My City - a participatory tool for community based research
			Jenny Wood, Heriot Watt University	Children's Participation in a Planning Research Project: Balancing Outcomes for Researcher, Researched, and Planning Practitioners
			Dr. Adefemi Adekunle, Newman University	Letting them take you as they want you' - apathy and commitment in research participation
			Sophie Hadfield-Hill, University of Birmingham	Map my Community - urban life in Delhi
15:00 - 15:15	Coffee
15:15 - 16:15	Workshop: Using participatory methodologies with children and young people	Led by: Dr. Cristiana Zara (University of Birmingham)
	Workshop: Use of technologies and apps in social science research with children and young people	Led by: Dr. Sophie Hadfield-Hill and Tess Osborne (University of Birmingham)
16:15 - 16:30	Event close			